POLICY DETAIL

1. Aims

The School Curriculum for Wales, implemented in September 2008, established a curriculum for the 21 Century. For our school, it is a vital component in supporting our learners maximise their full potential. It meets the needs of individual learners whilst taking account of the broader needs of Wales.

Following a review undertaken by Professor Graham Donaldson in 2015, Wales is now rolling out educational reform for 3-16 year olds, designed to put literacy, numeracy and digital competence at the heart of the system.

Improving education is our national mission. There are four purposes of the curriculum for Wales. All our children and young people will be:

- ambitious, capable learners
- enterprising, creative contributors
- ethical, informed citizens
- healthy, confident individuals

These four purposes are the shared vision and aspiration for every child and young person.

'Key Stages' will disappear and replaced with a seamless curriculum for children aged 3-16, providing more joined-up learning. Traditional subjects will still be taught but they will be grouped into six 'Areas of Learning Experience' (AoLEs):

- Languages, Literacy and Communication
- Mathematics and Numeracy
- Science and Technology
- Expressive Arts
- Humanities
- Health and Wellbeing

There are 27 statements of 'what matters' across the six area of learning experience and these are used to construct the curriculum for our learners.

We are in a transition phase between the need to deliver the National Curriculum and develop the new Curriculum for Wales. Since September 2020, departments have been trialling new learner experiences and investigating how new 'progression steps' will link in with this work.

The new curriculum has been taught to year 7 from September 2022 and year 7 and 8 from September 2023. It will continue to roll out in successive years.

The school has been and will continue to engage with stakeholders in order to continue to change and shape its curriculum and this curriculum policy will be modified regularly to reflect this.

Our current school curriculum:

- focuses on the learner
- ensures that appropriate skills development is woven throughout the curriculum
- offers reduced subject content with an increased focus on skills
- focuses on continuity and progression
- is flexible in order to meet the needs of all learners

- supports Government policy, including bilingualism, Cwricwlwm Cymreig/Wales, Europe and the World, equal opportunities, health and wellbeing, sustainable development and global citizenship, Careers and the world of work
- continues to deliver a distinctive curriculum that is appropriate for Wales

Students are expected to acquire skills in:

- speaking and listening, literacy, numeracy skills and digital competence, working with others and problem solving
- personal, social and health education reflecting the school's aims and ethos

This policy has taken account of Welsh government statutory orders and the guidance offered by:

- School Effectiveness Framework (WAG 2008)
- A Curriculum for All Learners (WAG 2010)
- The Additional Learning Needs (ALN) Code for Wales (2021)
- Learning Skills (Wales) Measure (WAG 2009)
